Fifty-fourth session
Second Committee
Agenda item 100 (f)
Environment and sustainable development: implementation of the outcome of the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States

Draft resolution submitted by the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Daúl Matute (Peru), on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/54/L.23

Implementation of the outcome of the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 49/122 of 19 December 1994 on the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States,

Recalling also its resolutions 51/183 of 16 December 1996, 52/202 of 18 December 1997 and 53/189 of 15 December 1998,

Recognizing that small island developing States face special challenges and vulnerabilities of both an environmental and economic nature in their efforts to achieve sustainable development,

Recalling the Declaration[1] and review document[1] adopted at the twenty-second special session of the General Assembly,

Noting the significant efforts being made at the national and regional levels and the need for them to be supplemented by effective financial support from the international community,

Bearing in mind the over three hundred projects that were presented for financing within the context of implementation of the Barbados Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States[2] at the meeting of representatives of donors of small island developing States held from 24 to 26 February 1999,

[1] See resolution S-22/2, annex.

1. Reiterates the significance of the effective implementation of the Declaration and review document adopted at the twenty-second special session of the General Assembly;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the Declaration and review document adopted at the twenty-second special session of the General Assembly to the various organs of the United Nations system and the regional commissions and organizations, taking into account the areas identified in the review document for priority action, and urges them to take the action necessary for further implementation and effective follow-up;

3. Calls upon Governments, the regional commissions and organizations and other intergovernmental organizations to support the efforts of the small island developing States, taking into account those areas identified in the review document for priority action, and urges them to take the action necessary for the further implementation and effective follow-up of the Barbados Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States;

4. Calls upon all stakeholders, in particular local communities, non-governmental organizations and the private sector, to take the action necessary for the further implementation and effective follow-up of the Barbados Programme of Action;

5. Emphasizes the need for the provision of resources for the further implementation of the Barbados Programme of Action;

6. Urges all relevant organizations to finalize, preferably before the end of the year 2000, the work on the development of a vulnerability index, in particular for the small island developing States, which would assist in defining the vulnerability of those States and in identifying the challenges to their sustainable development, for consideration by the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly at the appropriate time;

7. Welcomes the acknowledgement by the Committee on Development Policy that the concept of vulnerability should be included explicitly in the identification criteria for the least developed countries and notes the ongoing discussions on the new criteria proposed by the Committee;

8. Calls upon the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development to give substantive consideration in its work to the Declaration and review document adopted at the twenty-second special session of the General Assembly for the review and appraisal of the implementation of the Barbados Programme of Action, including in its preparations for the tenth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development;

9. Invites the Commission on Sustainable Development to consider, as appropriate, in its work programme matters relating to the further implementation of the Barbados Programme of Action, bearing in mind the report of the General Assembly on its twenty-second special session;

10. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-fifth session, under the item entitled "Environmental and sustainable development", the sub-item entitled "Further implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States";

11. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session a report on the implementation of the present resolution.
